[PROPOSED] STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER¹

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between Plaintiff Mohammed Thani A.T. Al Thani ("Plaintiff") and Defendants Alan J. Hanke ("Hanke"), IOLO Global LLC ("IOLO"), Subgallagher Investment Trust ("SGIT") and Sherry Sims ("Sims" and collectively with other defendants, "Defendants"), through their respective attorneys of record, as follows:

WHEREAS, this matter may involve the production of certain non-public information which a Party may believe to be confidential or sensitive personal information;

THEREFORE, an Order of this Court protecting such confidential information shall be and hereby is made by this Court on the following terms:

1. The following provisions shall govern the exchange of confidential information in this matter.

¹ Defendant Amy Roy-Haeger has not responded to Plaintiff's request for her to stipulate to this Protective Order.

2. Counsel for each Party may designate any document, information contained in a document, information revealed in an interrogatory response or information revealed during a deposition as confidential if counsel determines, in good faith, that such designation is necessary to protect the interests of the client. Information and documents designated as confidential are to be stamped “CONFIDENTIAL” (collectively, confidential information and documents are “Confidential Information”). To the extent electronically stored information is produced in a format that does not permit the branding of the designation on the face of the document (e.g. native Excel or database exports), the producing Party shall add the abbreviation “CONF.” to the file name of such documents.

3. Unless ordered by the court or otherwise provided for herein, Confidential Information disclosed will be held and used by the Party receiving such information solely for use in connection with the above-captioned action.

4. Burden on Designating Party: This Order shall be without prejudice to the right of any Party to bring before this Court at any time the question of whether any particular information is properly designated “CONFIDENTIAL.” The burden of proving that information is properly designated pursuant to this Order shall be on the Designating Party.

5. In the event that one Party challenges another Party’s designation of documents or information as CONFIDENTIAL, counsel shall make a good faith effort to resolve the dispute, and in the absence of a resolution, the challenging Party may thereafter seek resolution by the Court. Nothing in this Protective Order constitutes an admission by any Party that Confidential Information disclosed in this case is relevant or admissible. Each Party specifically reserves the right to object to the use or admissibility of all Confidential Information disclosed, in accordance with applicable laws and court rules.

6. Information or documents designated as “Confidential” shall not be disclosed to any person except:

- a. A Party and that Party’s counsel of record and any co-counsel, including in-house counsel.
- b. Employees of such counsel assigned to and necessary to assist in the litigation.
- c. The Court (including the clerk, court reporter or stenographer, or other person having access to Confidential Information by virtue of his or her position with the Court) or the jury at trial or as exhibits to motions.
- d. Subject to the condition set forth in Paragraph 10, below: consultants or experts in the prosecution or defense of the matter, to the extent deemed necessary by counsel.
- e. Subject to the condition set forth in Paragraph 10, below: any person from whom testimony is taken or is to be taken in this action, except that such a person may only be shown Confidential Information during and in preparation for his/her testimony and may not retain the Confidential Information.

7. Highly Confidential - Attorney’s Eyes Only:

- a. If a Party or non-party producing documents in this action believes in good faith that, despite the provisions of this Protective Order, there is a substantial risk of identifiable harm to the producing Party if particular documents it designates as “Confidential” are disclosed, the producing Party may designate those particular documents as “Confidential - Attorney’s Eyes Only.” Information and documents so designated are to be stamped “CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY.” The “Confidential - Attorney’s Eyes Only” designation shall be reserved for such information that, in the good faith judgment of the Party making the designation, would be highly detrimental if disclosed to a business competitor.

- b. Except with the prior written consent of the individual or entity designating a document or portions of a document as “Confidential - Attorney’s Eyes Only” or pursuant to a court order, any document, transcript, or pleading given “Confidential - Attorney’s Eyes Only” treatment hereunder, and any information contained in or derived from any such materials (including, but not limited to, all deposition testimony that refers to, reflects or otherwise discusses any information designated “Confidential - Attorney’s Eyes Only” hereunder) may not be disclosed to any person other than: (a) a Party’s outside counsel of record in this action and co-counsel, if any, as well as employees of said counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation; (b) subject to the condition set forth in Paragraph 10, below, experts specifically consulted in their capacity as consultants or expert witnesses in connection with this litigation, (c) the Court and its personnel; (d) court reporters, their staffs, and professional vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation; and (e) the author of the document or the original source of the information (including current or former employees and agents of the author of documents, to the extent reasonably necessary for prosecution or defense of the claims).

- c. Unless otherwise specified herein, all provisions of this Order discussing or referencing “Confidential Information” shall apply equally to materials designated “Confidential - Attorney’s Eyes Only.”

8. Use of Confidential Materials at Trial: Nothing in this Order shall prevent a Party from using at trial any information or materials designated “Confidential” or “Confidential - Attorney’s Eyes Only.”

9. Prior to disclosing or displaying Confidential Information, or information designated “Confidential - Attorney’s Eyes Only” to any person, counsel shall:

- a. inform the person of the confidential nature of the information or documents;
- b. inform the person that this Court has enjoined the use of the information or documents by him/her for any purpose other than this litigation and has enjoined the disclosure of that information or documents to any other person.

10. Confidential Information, or information designated Confidential - Attorney’s Eyes Only, may be displayed to and discussed with the persons identified in Paragraphs 6d, 6e, and 7b(b), only on condition that prior to any such display each person must sign an agreement to be bound by this Order in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. In the event that such person refuses to sign an agreement in the form attached as Exhibit A, the Party desiring to disclose the Confidential Information may seek appropriate relief from the Court.

11. Confidentiality Designation Does Not Constitute Evidence: This Order has been agreed to by the Parties to facilitate discovery and the production of relevant evidence in this action. Neither the entry of this Order, nor the designation of any information, document, or the like as "Confidential" or "Confidential - Attorney's Eyes Only" nor the failure to make such designation, shall constitute evidence with respect to any issue in this action.

12. The disclosure of a document or information without designating it as "Confidential" or "Confidential - Attorney's Eyes Only" shall not constitute a waiver of the right to designate such document or information as Confidential Information or Confidential - Attorney's Eyes Only provided the material is designated pursuant to the procedures set forth herein no later than fourteen (14) days after the close of discovery. If so designated, the document or information shall thenceforth be treated as Confidential Information or Confidential - Attorney's Eyes Only subject to all of the terms of the Stipulation and Order.

13. Clawback for Privileged Information: If a Party's production of documents inadvertently includes privileged documents or documents containing privileged information, such Party's inadvertent production of any such documents will not constitute a waiver of privilege. Upon being advised by the producing Party or its counsel that a particular document or class of documents has been inadvertently produced and is claimed to be privileged or to contain privileged information, the receiving Party shall promptly take reasonable steps to locate and return or destroy all copies of any such document (with the producing Party bearing the reasonable costs of such locating and return or destruction, including any reasonable database modification costs) and any such document shall not thereafter, in any event, be used for any purpose, unless adjudicated not to be privileged. Nothing in this Paragraph shall alter any attorney's responsibilities under applicable laws or codes of ethics when confronted with inadvertently produced privileged information or documents.

14. All information subject to confidential treatment in accordance with the terms of this Stipulation and Order that is filed with the Court, including any pleadings, motions or other papers filed with the Court that includes Confidential Information or information designated Confidential - Attorney's Eyes Only, shall be filed under seal to the extent permitted by law (including, without limitation, any applicable rules of the Court) and shall be kept under seal until further order of the Court. To the extent that the Court requires any further act by the Parties as a precondition to the filing of documents under seal (beyond the submission of this Stipulation and Order Regarding Confidential Information), it shall be the obligation of the producing Party of the documents to be filed with the Court to satisfy any such precondition. Where possible, only confidential portions of the filings with the Court shall be filed under seal.

15. At the conclusion of the litigation, the Confidential Information or information designated Confidential - Attorney's Eyes Only and any copies thereof shall be promptly, (and in no event no later than sixty (60) days after entry of final judgment no longer subject to further appeal) returned to the producing Party or certified in writing as destroyed, except that the Party's respective counsel shall be permitted to retain their working files on the condition that such files will remain confidential. If a Party's counsel elects to retain his or her working file, any Confidential Information or information designated Confidential - Attorney's Eyes Only in the working file remains subject to all other terms of the Order, including Paragraph 3.

16. The foregoing is without prejudice to the right of any Party to apply to the Court for any further Protective Order relating to Confidential information or information designated Confidential - Attorney's Eyes Only; or to object to the production of documents or information; or to apply to the Court for an order compelling production of documents or information; or for modification of this Order. This Order may be enforced by any Party, and the Parties agree that any violation of this Order may result in the imposition of sanctions by the Court.

17. Third parties who are the subject of discovery requests, subpoenas or depositions in this case may take advantage of the provisions of this Order by providing Plaintiff and Defendants with written notice that they intend to comply with and be bound by the terms of this Order. Any party serving discovery requests to third parties shall notify the third party of the existence of this Order and cause a copy of the Order to be served on the receiving party.

18. Notwithstanding any confidentiality designations or any of the foregoing provisions, any party wishing to file a document under seal must request permission to do so as required by the Court's Individual Practices.
